TUCSON, Ariz. – Starting on June 1, transit riders can load $25 to their SunGO Cards and pay only $20. And when paying at the farebox with money loaded to a SunGO Card, passengers are charged a lower rate than if paying with cash.

With money loaded onto a SunGO Card, full-fare passengers pay only $1.50 per trip to ride Sun Tran, Sun Link and select Sun Shuttle routes. By comparison, it costs $1.75 per trip to ride Sun Tran and select Sun Shuttle routes when paying with cash. And cash is not even accepted once on board the Sun Link streetcar.

There is a $2 cost for new SunGO Cards, but passengers who register their SunGO Cards receive an additional $2 in value loaded to their cards.
